

Bike Rentals in Nice

Nice, France, offers various bicycle rental options for tourists and locals alike. Here's a summary of the information found:

- New Self-Service Bike Hire Operators: As of February 2024, two new operators, Lime and Pony, will replace Vélo Bleu, offering bike rentals in 12 towns, including Nice, Cagnes-sur-Mer, Saint-Laurent-du-Var, and more. Download the mobile app, locate a bike near you, and unlock it with a QR code.
- Cycle Classic Tours: This company offers bike rentals for road bikes, e-bikes, and mountain bikes. They have outlets in Nice, Menton, and Cannes, and provide high-quality bikes with helmets, locks, and other accessories. Bookings must be made at least 3 days in advance for a minimum of 2 days.
- Vélo Bleu: Although the original Vélo Bleu scheme has ended, you can still subscribe to the new system, which allows you to rent bikes in Nice, Saint-Laurent-du-Var, and Cagnes-sur-Mer. The subscription enables you to use the bikes in all three cities, and you can rent up to 5 bikes with one account.
- Nice City Bike Rental (Viator): This guided bike tour offers rentals for various durations, including 2 hours, 4 hours, 1 day, and 1 week. Helmets are provided, and bikes are well-maintained. You can cancel up to 24 hours in advance for a full refund.
- Local Bike Rental Shops: Several reputable shops with English-language websites are available, such as Holland Bikes and Café du Cycliste. These shops offer day or week-long rentals, tailored to your biking needs, and may include helmet and liability insurance.
- Bike Trip: This company has agencies in Cannes, Nice, and Menton, offering a wide range of bicycles for rent, including kid's bikes, high-end racing bikes, and touring bikes. They also provide bike delivery services to surrounding areas.

Before renting a bike, consider the type of ride you want to take, the duration of your rental, and the services offered by each provider. Enjoy your cycling experience in Nice!
