Cultural Etiquette

Politeness: Always greet people with a polite “Bonjour” (Good day) or “Bonsoir” (Good evening) when entering shops or restaurants. Language: Learn a few basic French phrases. Even if your French isn't perfect, locals appreciate the effort. Dining Etiquette: It’s customary to keep both hands on the table (not on your lap) while eating. Also, don’t start eating until everyone is served, and always say “Bon appétit” before starting.
